The Farm Bureau meeting and Glades Livestock meeting both scheduled for Tuesday night, December 18th, have been combined and will meet at the Livestock Market, with a barbecue beginning at 6:30. Dr. Spencer Morrison will be the speaker.

The Farm Bureau meeting was originally scheduled to be held at the Community house in Canal Point, but as the two meetings conflicted, a joint session at the Livestock Market was arranged, according to Manager George Young.

Clewiston To Be Hosts To Lions Annual Glades Football Banquet

Glades Lions will hold their annual banquet for the several high school football teams at Clewiston next Friday night as guests of the Clewiston Lions Club with Lions from Canal Point, Pahokee, Belle Glade and South Bay participating.

Football teams from Okeechobee, Pahokee, Belle Glade and Clewiston will be the special guests of honor, along with the coaches and officials.

No Lions meeting will be held in Belle Glade next Wednesday as this will be an official meet of the club.

It is customary to have an outstanding football figure as speaker for these annual events, as most of the seniors are contemplating college football.

THE SWEETEST THING ON THE SHOW is the box of raw sugar being presented by Bill Lanier to Dave Garraway Monday morning during the "TODAY" television show which was filmed in Palm Beach.

Mr. Lanier presented the unrefined sugar on behalf of Harry Vaughan, General Manager of US Sugar at Clewiston, and Mr. Garraway promised to compare the tastiness and vitamin content of the Glades sugar with that normally found on the best tables.

Mr. Muggs, a simian mimic of the human specie, cavorted with a stalk of sugar cane and Mr. Garraway for considerable food on the television screen.

And Mr. Garraway himself exhibited a 15-foot stalk with words of praise for the economic value of sugar production to Palm Beach County.

Miss O'Connell, a winsome member of the Garraway professional entourage, displayed rambie stalks and fiber and a pedagogical discourse on its virtues, for the benefit of the TV audience.

Others known and Pioneer growers collected whatever fresh vegetables were available in the Glades and John Causey of Red Mounts' office added east coast vegetables to make

JOB and WORKER

J. W. Mosley, Jr., Representative Florida State Employment Service

THE BIG LOOK . . . Although the frost fell on every one two weeks ago things look much better today for a Merry Christmas for all.

On the East Coast has and is increasing. About 1,000 pickers are being sent daily to help harvest the bean crop in the area.

J. W. Mosley, Jr., Representative Florida State Employment Service

These workers will be sent to the citrus area to pick oranges. These have been in demand and the families have been left behind.

These workers will be sending money home to the Glades from their harvest purses in the harvest ridge area. King Orange was seriously damaged in Central Florida by the same frost that fell on us. The damaged fruit must be harvested within three weeks to be fit for the birds.

BRASS FROM TALLAHASSEE . . . John M. Cooper, Field Representative from the State Office, visited the local employment service office Tuesday.

This was more or less in the nature of a farewell since Mr. Cooper will take over the Central Florida Area on January 1st. Jerry, as we all know him, (Continued on Page Seven)

Golden Rams Win Two Out Of Three

By Jack McCaskill
Belle Glade High School's Basketball team got off to a good start trimming St. Ann's tonight 83 to 30. They continued the hot pace by trouncing Lake Worth 47 to 37 in the second game. Pompano Golden Tornadoes cooled off the Rams in the third game of the season 40 to 40 at Pompano Tuesday night.

At this point it does not appear that the Rams are strong contenders for the Conference Championship, but they are an alert, scrappy, aggressive squad.

With good team play, hard work and a little luck they could finish in the first division.

The Rams possess no players of abnormal height, seemingly an essential of top flight basketball, but they do have a team averaging approximately six feet per man, all of whom are fairly fast and have at least one year's experience in varsity competition.

This year's team is being built around veterans. Effort Norris, Johnny Thomas, Broman Cumpston, Billy Jackson and Earl Ward, Norris playing his third year of first team basketball is the mainstay of the team experienced.

U Of Miami Presents Concert Here Tonight

The University of Miami Chorus will present a concert here tonight at the Belle Glade High School auditorium at 8 p.m. There will be no admission charge but a free offering will be taken up in behalf of a scholarship for the music department.

All music lovers are cordially invited to attend this performance.

Santa Really Needs Help!

There's a family in Belle Glade with a junior high school boy paralyzed from the waist down. There are two daughters 14 and 8 and two more boys 10 and 6, and a sixth child expected in the near future.

The husband is serving an allotted time for the City street gang and contributes a little less than he did before becoming a free boarding member of the City's work gang.

The County Welfare is assisting to the extent of its abilities with house rent; the Elks and private individuals are helping some with groceries, but these leave considerable necessities lacking.

The paralyzed son, aged 17, will likely be sent to the Marianna Crippled Children's Home as soon as preliminaries are completed for assistance, and in the meantime, being taught by the County Special teacher, Mrs. Vernie Bous.

While the mother is in the hospital with the sixth child and the father bringing home only his own keep with the City, the kids must be cared for.

Mr. Ed Lively and his Elks Committee on Welfare, in cooperation with Mrs. Bous, have agreed to administer any donated funds.

If the Christmas Spirit prompts you to participate in aiding this needy case, any amount may be left with Mr. Lively at the Bank, Mrs. Bous, or at the City's welfare, and you may be assured the funds will be used to the best advantage of the family.

with all the McWhorter children as characters. The beautiful float was constructed by Mrs. McWhorter. The Hurricaneettes who followed drew applause as they stepped off their routine, setting the theme for the following ten Mother Goose floats. The Hanel and Gretel float was followed by the Boy Scout Troop No. 22 marching unit. The Mary Had A Little Lamb float preceded the Okechoe Band.

The Old Woman Who Lived In A Shoe was appropriately followed by the uniformed Brownie Scouts of four local troops. Next in line was the lovely Little Bo Peep float, followed by the National Guard marching unit. Uniformed Cub Scouts of eight packs followed the House That Jack Built float and preceded The Cat and the Fiddle float with the cow jumping over the moon, the float appropriately sponsored by the Next in line was the Moore Haven band followed by the Humpty Dumpty float. Two white pickup trucks appropriately decorated conveyed the lovely former harvest queen, Mrs. J. G. Abbott and Mrs. R. Wilson. The trucks carried some 2,000 bags of Belle Glade grown vegetables, donated by Belle Glade farmers. Each bag carried an attractive Christmas greeting card. The Junior Belle Glade Cheer Leaders passed out the bagged vegetables to spectators along the line of route.

Two troops of Intermediate Girl Scouts followed the Crooked Man float and Old King Cole and his fiddlers three brought up the rear of the Theme Floats. The Belle Glade band preceded by their attractive majorities which featured a hand-drawn decorated gift box in gold with red tie and bow carrying the gift card message, SHOP AT BELLE GLADE FOR GIFTS. At either side waving greetings to the crowds were two beautifully costumed Santa Claus helpers, Bernice Harrison and Pat Clayton. The clever American Legion Auxiliary float featured a miniature Santa Claus.

The Snappy Drum and Bugle

Corps of Troop 1, Boy Scouts of Riviera Beach drummed in Old Saint Nick himself waving greetings from the Chamber of Commerce sponsored float, followed by the local mounted unit.

A dozen clowns cavorted along the line of route throwing 5,000 lollipops to the children.

Sponsors

All floats in the parade were sponsored by local business men including Daddy Dicks, Case Rate Grocery, Shirley Brothers, Everglades Federal Savings and Loan Association, Belle Glade Motel, Bob Davis Buick, Belle Glades Chevrolet, Barney's Appliances, Hooks and White, Lake Shore Radio, Home Hardware, Glades Livestock Market, Bob's Sinclair Service Station, Kirschman Oil Co., Harris Service Station, Agricultural Insecticide Co., Glades Feed and Supply, Hector Supply, Bell's Restaurant, Ray's Smoke House, Glades Equipment, Coastal Motors, Hendry Tractor Co., Roy's, Inc., Belle Glade Herald.

The printing and distribution of 10,000 handbills to all Glades communities inviting them to the Fiesta and advertising each sponsoring merchant were made possible by 40 merchants and businessmen.

Fireworks

Immediately after the parade, Mrs. McTaggart and her able assistants served a delicious dinner to all participating band members and at seven-thirty sharp, an extravaganza of fireworks was shown a large appreciative audience. Milton Carpenter and his able assistants put on a magnificent program. Never was there a lapse in activity. Two and sometimes three bombs burst spectacularly overhead during the entire firing time. Preceding the fireworks program, four high school boys played in union under the direction of bandmasters, Kirk of Moore Haven, Joe Risk of Lake Worth, Mrs. Louise Reynolds of Okechoe and John Munroe of Belle Glade who directed the bands in an inspirational rendition of THE STARS SPANGLED BANNER. As the beautiful strains of our National Anthem died away, the American flag blazed in colored glory on the darkened field. The hour long program included many beautiful set pieces as well as aerial displays.

Credit Given

Credit for the success of the day's events goes to the City of Belle Glade, who through their advertising program with the Chamber of Commerce made the conception of the Fiesta possible. Police Chief Charlie Goodlett and his able force, Milton Carpenter and his merrier men,

THIS NATIVITY SCENE FLOAT, made by "local professionals" Charlie and Ina McWhorter, was the only "housemade" float in the Christmas Fiesta and rated with the best of them. The couple's children in full regalia, participated as Naives.

Assistant Chief of the Fire Dept.

Cecil Bair and his able men, Jim Mosely and his entire clown crew of 12 stalwarts and special handbills go to the Belle Glade farmers who donated the vegetables for the Christmas bags to Frank Hobson for his many courtesies, the Florida Bag and Light Co. for donating the lights at the football field, to WSWN for their excellent coverage as the parade passed by as well as their advertising the event to the 7th, to the school cafeteria, to Marvin Union, Dick Poston, Urban Felsing, Mrs. Felsing and Mrs. Young who decorated the Merchant's float, to Mrs. McWhorter for the beautiful entry she constructed, to the American Legion Auxiliary members as well as all participants in the parade and fireworks program, to Mrs. Urcel Mixon for her helpfulness in obtaining permission to use the character on the floats, to Troop leader, W. C. Taylor and his Boy Scouts for distribution of handbills, to Mrs. Rosa Nash, Bernice Harrison, Mrs. Young and the Fourth Grade boys who distributed handbills.

The Fiesta planning committee who spent many long hours in early breakfast meetings and evening meetings since September included Urban Felsing, chrm, Dick Poston, John Munroe, Marian Najarian, Jim Mosely, Lee Smith, Charlie Goodlett, Dick Murray, Larry Royal, George Hibby, Bob Lanier, New Ayers, Howard Payne, Rosa Nash, who did an excellent job on publicity, and Mrs. Edwina Young.

Televised

WPTV covered the parade and evening's program and showed some excellent shots on the Monday noon and evening programs. Approaching the program commenting on the Fiesta activities were Mrs. Bernice Harrison, Urban Felsing, Lee Smith and Mrs. Young. The committee is especially grateful for the excellent cooperation of WPTV, Channel 5, who also put out numerous advertising shorts previous to the Fiesta.

The committee will have a "re-cap" meeting next week to hash over the events seeking for next year. They especially urge all business interests in the community including the growers and packers as well as clubs and organizations to begin their thinking toward making preparations to participate in the parade next year. Merchant's are urged now to plan a promotion program for the Fiesta Days so that their advertising will feature special sales merchandise.

Highest Praise Given Messiah

A long cherished dream became a reality Monday night in the Belle Glade High School auditorium as the brilliant performance of "The Messiah," Handel's most successful and best known oratorio, unfolded before a large and appreciative audience.

This dramatic work is truly a challenge and in its performance proved again the great wealth of talent in the community as this oratorio is usually performed by large city groups, colleges and professional musicians. Miss Marian Najarian, music director in the schools and Wendell Carpenter, music and Educational director of the First Baptist Church, ably directed the chorus which was composed of the Belle Glade High School Glee Club, choirs from the churches in the city and individuals from Pahokee and Clewiston. Also effectively conveying the true depth and meaning of this great work were the soloists, Miss Molly Forner, Miss Annette Driggers, Mrs. Z. T. Ingram, Clarke Wismack, Mrs. William A. Thibaud and Charles Elliott of Pahokee, and the pianists, Miss Ouida Lanier and Leonard

DR. HERMAN GUNTER, geologist of the State of Florida, was presented last week with the Florida State Chamber of Commerce AWARD OF MERIT certificate for 1956. The award was designed for Dr. Gunter by the State Chamber of Commerce at its annual meeting at Jacksonville on November 13 for his wise and unbiased counsel over the past 30 years which has been of inestimable value to the developers of the state's economy. Since Dr. Gunter was unable to be present at the annual meeting because of illness, Luther Jones, who made the presentation on behalf of the State Chamber, asked Governor Collins to make the delayed presentation.

"Piggy-Back Letters" Okay! Says Postmaster

Acting Postmaster General Maurice H. Stans explained today to postal patrons the use of the new economical "Combination Mail" service for mailing a personal letter or message inside a parcel.

Explaining that many people are unaware that a violation of postal regulations is involved if first-class letters are enclosed within a parcel without the payment of additional postage, Mr. Stans noted that Combination Mail service provides a method of mailing such letters within parcels.

In Combination Mail, the postal patron is permitted to combine one class of mail with another class.

Here are some of the most common examples of how Combination Mail may be used:

1. A first-class letter in a parcel post package.
2. A first-class letter inside a third-class parcel (one weighing up to 8-ounces and containing printed matter or merchandise).
3. A first-class letter enclosed within a piece of second-class postage for its entire class matter — such as a personal letter mailed inside a magazine.

When mail of one class is enclosed within another the postal patron merely has to indicate on the outside that an enclosure is made.

For example, when a letter is enclosed within a parcel post package, he should mark on the outside wrapper of the package "First Class Mail Enclosed".

In such a case, he will pay the parcel post postage plus the cost for the enclosure. If the parcel costs 20 cents and the letter weighs an ounce, or less he will thus pay a total of 23 cents.

There are no forms and no red tape of any kind connected with Combination Mail, Mr. Stans pointed out.

However, where mail of two different classes are sent together and the proper postage is not paid as provided by Combination Mail, the entire package becomes subject to a higher postage rate. For example, in the case of the 23-cent parcel post package containing the 3-cent first-class letter, the whole assembly — parcel and letter — would become subject to first-class postage for its entire weight. This additional postage is collectable from either the sender or the addressee as postage due.

"We are calling special attention to this matter now," Mr. Stans commented, "for the convenience and guidance of postal patrons in their Christmas mailings."

Miss Vanderwater Married In Cocoa

Of wide interest here is the marriage in Cocoa of Miss Leah Somers Vanderwater to Norman Dale Bryant at the First Methodist Church on Dec. 11. She is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. L. F. Vanderwater of Haines City, formerly of Belle Glade and Cocoa. Rev. Vanderwater was pastor of the Community Methodist Church here for several years. Mr. Bryant is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bryant of Cocoa.

The bride's father officiated at the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. James Bartlett, pastor of the Cocoa Church. Wedding vows were spoken before an altar flanked with seven branch candelabra in a setting of Christmas red carnations and white pinocchio mums arranged in brass vases.

Mrs. Bert Roemer of this city, soloist sang a program of religious music accompanied by Miss Laverne Battle, organist.

The bride was gown in a pearl tulle dress designed with a scooped neckline and short sleeves. The basque bodice was embroidered with lace, pearls and iridescent paillettes. Cascades of chintilly lace adorned the front of the voluminous skirt which ended in a full chapel train. Her four tiered bridal veil of silk illusion made by her mother was attached to a wide velvet cap, and she wore an antique locket worn by her maternal grandmother more than 60 years ago. She carried a white Bible attached to a cascade bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. W. M. Campbell was matron of honor, bridesmaids were Miss Carolyn Kille of Tampa, Miss Nancy and Linda Bommer, Tampa, cousins of the bride and Miss Ruth Bryant, sister of the groom. Cathy Russell, cousin of the bride was flower girl and Julian Jensen was ring bearer.

Robert Packer Bryant was his brother's best man and ushers were Teddy Johnson, Clermont, and Arthur Mackey, Joseph Prime and John Greene of Cocoa. Junior ushers who lighted the candles for the double ring ceremony were Charles and Robert Rembert.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the dining room of the Brevard hotel.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Atlanta, Ga., and will be at home here after Jan. 1, where Mr. Bryant is attending Georgia Tech. For traveling the bride wore a two piece black sheath dress with a pale blue full length coat, matching blue hat of felt and black accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Bryant is a graduate of Belle Glade High School and Florida Southern College, is a member and vice president of Delta Omega Chapter Bet Sigma Phi, at Cocoa.

Mr. Bryant was graduated from Cocoa High School and served four years in the U. S. Navy. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Packard, pioneer resident of Cocoa.

Attending the wedding from Belle Glade were Mrs. Roemer and Mrs. Victor Zawadski.

Water Areas In Parks Regulated By County

By the Christmas week end a new set of regulations for boating, swimming and water skiing will be in force in Palm Beach County's park areas.

The new regulations which amend the previous park regulations were recently adopted by the county commission and will become effective Dec. 21, according to Jack Goss, county park superintendent.

The new regulations set aside five areas in John Prince Memorial Park which can be used for bathing and swimming, and will be marked by erection of signs and installation of life lines.

The new regulations provide that boat operators will be held responsible for their own wake and liable for damages established by a general counter clockwise traffic pattern for boats on Lake Osborne; motor boats shall be prohibited from operating on park waters before 8 a. m. on Sunday; boats will carry life preservers for each person aboard; prohibits the use of airboats in John Prince Memorial Park without special permission of the county board; provides for authority for staging special events for the benefit of the public.

The regulations ban water skiing in waters of a county park except in such places and landings as have been designated; prohibits water skiing in such manners as to annoy, frighten or endanger swimmers; provides that tow boats shall carry one person other than the driver; no person shall obstruct take off and landing areas designated for water skiing; bans skiing at night and under bridges and provides for landing areas in John Prince Memorial Park.

The regulations also ban the use of trolling for fishing purposes in park waters and permits the use of cane poles if fishermen attend them.

L. P. Hudson Is In Veteran's Hospital

L. P. Hudson, World War One veteran, is receiving medical treatment and observation at the Veterans' Hospital in Coral Gables. Mr. and Mrs. Hudson, who live at 116 S. W. Ave. B, came to Belle Glade in 1954 upon the suggestion from their doctor in Birmingham, Alabama, that this climate might be more healthful for Mr. Hudson, who was then recovering from a light stroke.

Friends may be interested in knowing that he is expected to be hospitalized for several weeks.

JOB AND WORKER

(Continued from page One) has been a real friend of the South Florida Area during the past year and a half. His place will be taken by Mr. Thurman Burnett, a long time farm placement man and former manager of a central Florida office.

NEW HORIZONS... Luther Jones, Edwin Young, Bernice Harrison, Urban Folsing and Lee Smith faced television cameras on Monday morning. Luther made the Dave Garbo show and all of the others appeared on WPTV Channel 5 in connection with the Belle Glade Fiesta. Many good plugs for the Glades were pulled.

FIESTA OF FIESTAS... Personal of this office are proud to have been a part of the Belle Glade citizens who worked so hard to make the Fiesta a success. A remark was passed within our hearing to the effect that this was the first time a civic function had been run so smoothly that no one had their toes stepped on. We would reply that all committee members were moving so fast in life was enjoyed by about 500 people at Belle Glade High School Auditorium Monday night. "The Messiah" was given by the combined church choirs of Belle Glade with help from voices from Pahokee and other communities in the Glades. Our hats are off to Miss Marian Jarman and Wendell Carpenter, directors, and all who made this a night to be remembered here.

What's it Got that Everyone's After?

We figured folks would go for the '57 Buick—and big.

But we sure didn't figure this—the most rousing reception we've ever seen in all our years of selling new Buicks.

We're getting more enthusiastic talk—along with the signed orders—than ever before. And, neighbor, if you want to know why—listen:

This '57 Buick has that sleek low-sweep styling that today's moderns want—and it's here in extra-long measure, in the lowest Buick yet.

It has the room they want—for Buick's new wide-frame chassis permits a sports-car silhouette with more interior roominess than even last year's spacious Buicks.

It has newness everywhere, and newness that's wanted...

A smart new panoramic windshield of vast dimensions and greater visibility.

The sweet, solid surety of a new "nested" ride. A brilliant new handling and cornering and levelized braking that come of an ingenious new ball-joint suspension. It even has the modern answer for today's driving—a new Safety-Minder* that watches your miles-per-hour for you.

But even more important, this Buick sweep of automobile has a new kind of instant response—and that's the biggest reason for the soaring popularity of the newest Buick yet.

For here is performance—smooth as spun silk—unleashed by a totally new V8 engine 364 cubic inches big, and with the highest compression, torque and horsepower in Buick annals.

And here, to deliver that might, is the power-pitch action of an advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo.* A Dynaflo of such instantaneous obedience, such smooth and versatile control in "Drive"—the need for "Low" is virtually ended.

In all truth, you've never bossed a car so keenly alive, so smooth in motion, so solid in feel. It's ahead of its time, ahead of the industry—even ahead of your great expectations.

Come check up on all this for yourself. Come drive this shoulder-high sweetheart with the strong he-and-she appeal. Come be our guest today.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special. Safety-Minder standard on Roadmaster, optional other series.

Roy Kimberly New Golf Pro

A young golfer, Roy Kimberly, is the new greenskeeper and pro at the Municipal Country Club. He replaces Ed H. Chancey, who was pro here for about six months.

A native of Lake Worth, Kimberly has some good golfing history for his 21 years. He graduated from Lake Worth High School and was on the team winning the High School State Championship for two years and which placed second for two years. Kimberly, Vic Bass, Jr., Jimmy McCoy and Bill Wood made up the team. Roy says he has a 4 handicap on the West Palm Beach course where he has been greenskeeper for the past two years. He plans to give lessons to high school students around the first of the year, when there isn't so much going on.

Having played the local course only a few times, Roy says, "It's a wonderful course but tricky. I had a par the first time and then a 40."

He stated the greens are in very good shape, having been planted two weeks ago in winter rye and it is coming through nicely.

Play was very good this past week and over 50 on the course. Just so the young girls around don't get any ideas, Roy is married and his wife's name is Kathryn.

Follow Simple Rules To Build And Retain Good Credit Ratings

Almost everybody has to borrow money at some time or other, and farming is no exception. Credit today is more essential than ever before to successful farming, since farming has become mechanized and expensive. Consequently farmers should consider credit as one of their production tools and strive to build and maintain excellent credit ratings.

It goes without saying that credit is easier for those who are considered good risks. Here are a few rules suggested by Successful Farming for building and maintaining a good credit standing.

You establish a credit rating by borrowing money — and paying it back.

Get your credit from specialists — such as commercial banks, Federal Land Banks, insurance companies, Production Credit Associations, and other recognized sources of farm credit.

Use the right kind of credit — short-term for current expenses and long-term for buying land or making capital improvements.

Plan ahead on your credit needs. That means planning ahead on your entire farming operation so you'll know how much money you'll need — and when.

Borrow to make or save money. There's not much point in borrowing unless it will increase your net profit.

Plan the use of loan funds with your lender.

Refrain from your lender. Work out a repayment plan for every loan — one that will let you repay from operating income.

Meet your payments when Mrs. Robert Lanier.

Post Office To Have Additional Service During Xmas Rush

Postmaster George P. Farnall announces the following schedule of additional service to the public to take care of anticipated increased business incident to the Christmas rush.

The office will be open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. on Saturday, December 15 and 22 and from 9 to 5 p. m. on Sunday, December 16 and 23. There is a possibility added Mr. Farnall, that there will be two dispatches of mail on the two Sundays mentioned, and when the information is available, it will be made known to the public.

All mail services will be available during those hours of additional business on Saturdays, except that the money order window will close at 4 p. m. There will be no money order service available on the Sundays that are open. If necessary, said Mr. Farnall, longer hours will be observed on Christmas eve, and after the usual closing hour of 6 p. m. daily. No one will be turned away if they are in the office and want to be waited on, he said.

When the volume of incoming mail warrants, there will be more than one delivery daily to the residential areas, and more than 2 deliveries daily in the business area. Patrons are urged to be considerate with their mailmen and not to overburden them, with Christmas cards to be mailed.

Postmaster Farnall said that all patrons have been furnished with a good supply of labels for their use for "local" and "out-of-town" cards. "When faced properly and a label used, much time and effort is saved in a second handling, and this means the mail goes out promptly."

The receipts in this community during this period represent an 11.4% increase from the corresponding period last year, the local postmaster reported. Patrons are encouraged to mail their Christmas greeting cards at the first-class rate of postage. This will insure either forwarding or return in case the addressee has moved, and "you can write all the messages you so desire in the card" said Mr. Farnall, when the first class rate is paid. This also insures privacy of the seal.

Postal Receipts Show 11.4% Gain

Postmaster George P. Farnall announced today that local postal receipts from June 30 to October 19, 1956 were $13,659.38. The June 30 to October 19 period represents the first 16 weeks of the Post Office Department's current financial or "fiscal" year.

The receipts in this community during this period represent an 11.4% increase from the corresponding period last year, the local postmaster reported. Patrons are encouraged to mail their Christmas greeting cards at the first-class rate of the local postmaster supplements information released in Washington November 27, 1956 by acting Postmaster General Maurice H. Stans. At that time Mr. Stans announced a new reporting service for the Post Office Department's national operations and receipts, based on its management control reports.

The acting Postmaster General said he hopes the new information, which will be released periodically, "may prove to be another reliable and useful yardstick of the American economy."

While the Washington information covers postal operations on the national basis, the local postmaster said he hopes to supplement this service with similar periodic announcements on the local situation, so that it may be developed as one of the useful criteria of business activity and general economy in this community.

Meanwhile, in his report on national operations and receipts, Mr. Stans noted postal receipts for all 37,440 post offices in the nation, including the local office, for the period between June 30 and October 19, were $712.8 million.

This was an increase of $38.8 million over the same period of the last fiscal year, representing a 5.8 per cent increase. This said Mr. Farnall, falls short of the local increase since this office had an 11.4% increase.

Based on reports from larger post offices over the nation, Mr. Stans observed, a total of 12.7 billion pieces of mail were handled by these offices in the first 4 four-week periods (16 weeks) of this postal fiscal year. This was an average of 5.4 per cent increase this year compared with the same period a year ago.

The postal deficit for the 16 weeks of this fiscal year was $186.3 million.

Recent wage increases to postal employees and increases in capital expenditures by the Post Office Department to better serve the public are causing the deficit to mount above the low point of $399 million reached by the present administration in the 1954 fiscal year.

"Despite greater efficiency and rigid economies, the Post Office Department is now losing money at the rate of almost two million dollars each working day," Mr. Stans commented in his statement.

"To correct this unrealistic condition and continue our program of mail service improvements we should increase postal rates equitably — with the actual users of the mails paying a larger share of the costs, instead of transferring this financial burden to the shoulders of the American Taxpayers," he added.

"If your wife wants to learn to drive the car, don't stand in her way!"

Local Home Ec Girls Vie For Scholarship In Homemaking Tests

Participating with 300,000 throughout the United States in observing "Homemaker of Tomorrow Day" were girls of the Belle Glade High School.

Among those taking the 90-minute written examination to test their homemaking knowledge and attitude for a total of $100,000 in scholarships offered by General Mills, in the third annual Betty Crocker search for the American homemaker of tomorrow were Elizabeth Barber, Wanda Brent, Marion Browne, Karlene Hall, Bertha Haucomb, Joan and Joan Johns, Josephine Martin, Yvonne McTaggart, Shirley Rhymes, Jean River, Kay River, Joyce Patten, Betty Seale, Veronica Pike, Carol Van Landingham and Sue Van Landingham.

Approximately three quarters of a million girls have been enrolled in this national homemaking program since it was launched by General Mills in 1955 to assist the schools in homemaking education.

According to Mrs. Hazel Litchfield, homemaking teacher, it will be a week or so before the reports on examinations will be heard from in the local school.

In this state, 6,886 girls in 163 schools took the examination which consisted of multiple choice and objective questions testing the students' attitudes and knowledge in the major areas of homemaking.

The girls with the highest test score in each school will be named Homemaker of Tomorrow for her school and receive an award pin designed by Trifari of New York. Her test will be entered in competition for $1,500 and $500 scholarships which will be awarded each state Homemaker of Tomorrow and also runner up.

The school of each state winner will receive a complete set of the Encyclopedia Britannica.

The 48 state winners and the representative from the District of Columbia will receive an expense-paid educational tour to Washington, D. C., colonial Williamsburg, Va., and New York, where on May 21 at a Waldorf-Astoria hotel banquet, one of them will be announced as the 1957 All American Homemaker of Tomorrow. Her scholarship will be increased to $5,000. This year for the first time a core rank, second and third and fourth in the national finals will receive $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000 scholarships respectively.

communities in the state are now adding fluoride to their drinking water. Twenty-five other Florida communities have the correct amount of fluoride needed to control dental decay naturally in their water supplies.

Sarasota and Jacksonville are among these last named cities. Jacksonville has had the correct amount of fluoride in the water needed for control of dental decay for a period of 12 years. In a recent survey made by the State Board of Health of children 6 through 17 years of age who have used this water since birth, almost half of the children examined had no dental decay and had perfect permanent teeth.

"In cities throughout the United States where fluoridation has been in effect, some since 1949 and others where it was started later, not one case of illness of any type from drinking fluoridated water has been proved," says Dr. DeCamp, "and dental decay has been reduced from 60-65 per cent in children."
